

Rob Symonds

Vice President, Western Canada Production

Responsible for the leadership and management of Husky's Upstream business in Western Canada excluding Heavy Oil and Oil Sands. Focus is on growing Husky's production from oil and gas resource plays and enhanced recovery while achieving target finding and development and operating costs.

Career History and Key Accomplishments

Mr. Symonds was appointed Vice President, Western Canada Production in June 2011. Prior to his appointment, he was Vice President, Canadian Operations with Enerplus Resources Fund in Calgary.

Mr. Symonds started his career with Shell where he held a number of engineering and production/development-related roles in Western Canada, the North Sea, off Canada's East Coast and Calgary. His senior level assignments included Vice President, Foothills Business Unit; Director of Corporate Strategies; and Vice President – Frontier Business Unit.

Education

Mr. Symonds holds a Master of Science in Petroleum Engineering from the University of Alberta and a Bachelor of Science (Chemical Engineering) from the University of Edinburgh.

Professional Memberships, Associations and Designations

Mr. Symonds holds a Professional Engineer designation and is a member of the Society of Petroleum Engineers.