

Terry Manning

Vice President, Engineering & Procurement Management Husky Oil Operations Limited

Responsible for procurement, project management services and technical services.

Career History and Key Accomplishments

Mr. Manning was appointed Vice President, Engineering & Procurement Management in January 2009 with responsibilities for procurement, project management and technical services. Prior to his appointment he was Vice President, Engineering & Project Management. Mr. Manning joined Husky as Senior Projects Manager, Project Management Services, responsible for the Project Management Office, Project Controls & Services, Construction Management and Commercial functions.

Prior to joining Husky, Mr. Manning was Vice President, Capital Projects for Barrick Gold Corporation where he had accountability for Barrick's portfolio of mega projects and development of project business systems. From 2002 to 2006 Mr. Manning was General Manager, Project Management Office with Suncor Energy Inc.

Mr. Manning has worked for Agrium, where he was Director of Projects, focused primarily on international project development. He started his career with Teck-Cominco where he held progressive management positions related to engineering, maintenance and management of major capital projects with the parent company and international subsidiaries during the 17 years he was with the organization.

Education

Mr. Manning holds a Bachelor of Applied Science in Mechanical Engineering from University of Toronto.

Professional Memberships, Associations and Designations

Mr. Manning is a member of Association of Professional Engineers, Geologists and Geophysicists (APEGGA) and Professional Engineers and Geoscientists of British Columbia (APEGBC).