

Terry Manning

Senior Vice President, Safety, Engineering & Procurement Husky Oil Operations Limited

Responsible for safety, procurement, project management services and technical services.

Career History and Key Accomplishments

Mr. Manning was appointed Vice President, Safety, Engineering & Procurement in January 2012 with responsibilities for process and occupational safety, project management and technical services, and procurement. Prior to this appointment, he was Vice President, Engineering & Procurement Management. And previously he was Vice President, Engineering & Project Management. Mr. Manning joined Husky as Senior Projects Manager, Project Management Services. In April 2012, he was made Senior Vice President.

Prior to joining Husky, Mr. Manning was Vice President, Capital Projects for Barrick Gold Corporation where he had accountability for Barrick's portfolio of megaprojects and development of project business systems. From 2002 to 2006, Mr. Manning was General Manager, Project Management Office with Suncor Energy Inc.

Mr. Manning has worked for Agrium, where he was Director of Projects, focused primarily on international project development. He started his career with Teck-Cominco where he held progressive management positions related to engineering, maintenance and management of major capital projects with the parent company and international subsidiaries during the 17 years he was with the organization.

Education

Mr. Manning holds a Bachelor of Applied Science in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Toronto.

Professional Memberships, Associations and Designations

Mr. Manning is a member of the Association of Professional Engineers and Geoscientists of Alberta (APEGA) and the Association of Professional Engineers and Geoscientists of British Columbia (APEGBC).